

She Inspires!	I Look Up To Her Because...	Shared by
Stacy Little	She know what she wants and who she is. She is always herself and knows that her power lies there.	Genesis Shine
Brandy Avery		Anonymous
Eliza Marie Lucey	She's something truly special!	Gay Farmer
Krissi Barr		Anonymous
Angela An	She values human life and is quite a motivational speaker.	Betty Wallace
Michelle Obama	She is a diverse individual, and she respects all cultures, very well educated, African American Woman.	Ms. Sharon Parker
Anne Esarove, my mom	She inspires me to be a better person. She is so giving and caring and is always helping others. I aspire to be like her in this regards.	Liz Anderson
Emma Carroll	She is constantly working to improve the lives of women and the underpriveleged.	Brian Whitacre
Josephine Fowler	my mother,best friend,intentional	Lawanna Fowler
Genevieve Notestine (1922-1995)	Because she was a woman ahead of her time and instilled in her daughters the qualities of perserence and "pulling yourself up by your bootstraps"! Getting her real estate license in her 60's and becoming the authentic and fulfilled woman she was always meant to be!	Marcella Notestine Nugent

She Inspires!	I Look Up To Her Because...	Shared by
Sharron Underwood	Because she provided me with an example of what it means to be a devoted mother. She sacrificed and worked hard for her children.	Y'Nesha Schaffer
Carolina Medrano	Her strength and her support of me throughout my life.	Katherine Schuette
The clients who walk through the door of DFS each week I volunteer inspire me.	I am humbled when I hear their stories and listen to their struggles and their determination for a better life for themselves and their families. I hope through my work for DFS, in some small way I may have a small but positive impact on their journey to economic stability.	Renee Resnik
Laurie hawkins	a christian,friend,animal lover	sherry mccormack
Liz Reed	She embodies the word HUSTLE! Her work ethic is through the roof and it's motivating to everyone around her.	Emily Evans
Tracy Harrison	She is kind, sweet, a go getter. She's an amazing advocate for what she believes in. She's a woman of many talents, I am proud to know her and love, to call her friend mentor.	Marlo Lawson
Loretta Rolle	Her tireless devotion to helping others and her devotion to her faith.	Denise Loftus
Denise Toliver	She is a professional business woman who has managed to keep a kind heart and open arms for those who need it.	Daphne Simms
Susan Thiel	She is so supportive of me. She encourages the best from me.	Catherine Schwartz
Jessica Storm	She is so inspritational and helps me stay motivated.	Terena Howard

She Inspires!	I Look Up To Her Because...	Shared by
Dr. Linda Mercer	Although in her 80s, Linda has continued to be an advocate for women, students, and the arts. She has modeled engaged leadership, perseverance, achievement in spite of odds, intellectual honesty, and how to be a true friend.	Susan Witten
Donna Schreiber - My Mom	Her kindness knows no bounds and her faith is strong event in the most challenging circumstances	Vicki Bowen Hewes
Mrs. Rhonda Davenport	She's Motivating and Leader	Stacy Blu
Wendy Taylor	She is strong, visionary and compassionate.	Gladys Davis